It was a care-free crowd that gathered at the river for the annual picnic of St. Victor's Parish, last Sunday. The day was ideal, with a bright sun and a cool wind. In a short time everyone made the most of their last holiday cutting for some time to come. Father Lebel had provided candy and Mrs. Menard the germe for the various events, and some refreshments to the participants. There was baseball and swimming for the energetic ones, a competition for the older members, races for young and old, and, of course, the inevitable horse show. THE WORLD OF WHEAT

BY H. G. L. STRANGE
Director, Research Department
Searle Grain Company, Limited

The price of wheat, the records show, is today lower than it has been since about 1865, when it was equivalent to about 20 cents a bushel Liverpool.

The present low price is the direct result of the wheat surplus today existing in the world.

Surplus is the surplus? The whole world has been discussing this year, approximately $1,000 million bushels of wheat. The burdensome or unwanted surplus today, it is calculated, is not more than about 550 million bushels, or no more than sufficient to furnish the people of the wheat eating world with about 35 days supply.

Surpluses equal to this person in the world, have appeared in the past, and always have been quickly absorbed, that may not always last for years, have disappeared.

The reason that surpluses in the past have disappeared, and that this present surplus too may disappear, is that while the total amount of wheat produced think of the world's needs for a very few days. Any slight climate catastrophe to crops, or any large disaster, therefore, would soon make all these surplus bushels indispensable.

Following factors have tended to raise price: Considerable decrease in wheat and flour stocks abroad for Europe. Much of Mexican wheat surplus has been taken for Germany and Italy. No offerings of Russian new wheat crop which is believed only moderate. Unfavorable crop and weather reports from Europe.

RECREATION SCHOOL WILL OPEN HERE DURING OCTOBER

P. B. Nelson has returned after spending five weeks attending Summer School of Recreational and Physical Education at Mount Royal in Calgary.

The first week of October will mark the establishment of a six months Health and Recreational centre in Gleichen under his direction.

Those interested may attend program they are within the age limit 16-35 and are not attending school.

The program for each evening will include fundamental exercises, toning, breathing, walking, vaulting, pyramid building and games.

Last year saw the beginning of his movement in Alberta with over 5,000 registrations and a total attendance of 122,000.

He has now organized a Dominion Provincial relations for the past three years and the registration in the last year has increased to 100,000. The growth of this movement can be attributed to the fact that those who have participated in or observed the centres in action, the spirit of health and well being that develops is an infectious as smallpox.

But, the purpose of the movement is to make men the man of the hour. This is the age of specialization and many bodies show the result of this by having some part over developed and other parts unused. This tends to weaken those unused parts.

Fundamental gymnastics is the best method of all round development for the shortest space of time. There are exercises for all parts of the body, which are divided into three groups, viz., strength, endurance, flexibility and agility.

Possibly the greatest advantage of the movement is that all may take part. In most present day competitive sports ninety five per cent are spectators.

Present competitors are quite different from the physical training which had its value but did little to develop rhythm and co-ordination of the system doing the work.

If you want to develop a streamlined body in time with our pace, go to the centre and have fun doing it. Re-create with recreation.

WE ALWAYS APPRECIATE THEM

The other day we asked a man for his printing and he told us:

“Oh, our printing doesn’t amount to much. All we have is a few small orders, and none of them ever run into anything that looks like money.”

Those little orders are the kind that make our business.

Most of our business is in printing letterheads, envelopes, circulars, posters, office forms, and other small orders.

We appreciate a small order as well as we do a big one.

So, if you have any small orders for printing we want you to know that we are glad to get them. We appreciate them just as much—and take just as good care of them—as if they actually amounted to hundreds of dollars.
